

ARLINGTON STUDENTS IN B. U. PRODUCTION TOMORROW EVENING

Dorothy Pluta and H. Marston Bradbury To Take Part In "H. M. S. Pinafore" At Jordan Hall Tomorrow and Thursday Evenings — Professor Harry B. Center Is Director—Production Is Highlight of Boston University Junior Week

Boston University halls echo daily with the strain of "We Sail the Ocean Blue" and "I'm Called Little Buttercup," as "Pinafore," 1932 presentation of the B. U. Gilbert and Sullivan Association, approaches the dress rehearsal stage with the amateur light opera players preparing for opening night, tomorrow, April 27 at Jordan Hall. Over 75 students are rehearsing under the direction of Prof. Harry B. Center, Gilbert and Sullivan coach. The program will be repeated Thursday evening.

Gilbert and Sullivan operettas have been prime favorites with B. U. students since the forming of the association six years ago, but this year the members of the "Pinafore" cast are spurred on by a spirit of rivalry with the alumni members of the association, who are producing the shorter operetta "Trial By Jury," which will appear on the same bill.

Over 75 students are taking part in the production of "Pinafore." They have become stars and chorus girls, scene shifters and chorus men. For the performance of "Pinafore" the stage of Jordan Hall will become the deck of a British man o' war of the nineteenth century, while for the alumni's show it will be a courtroom. On the decks of "Her Majesty's Ship Pinafore" will strut Sir Joseph Porter, K. C. B., played by Gordon Van Buskirk of Melrose, with "his sister and his cousins and his aunts."

There too, Ralph Rackstraw, Warren Freeman of Quincy, will pour out his tale of hopeless love for the Captain's Daughter, Ethel Johnson of Quincy will play the part of the lovely Josephine, while her stern parent, Captain Corcoran, will be portrayed by Hugh Curry of Cambridge.

Dorothy Pluta of Arlington as the bumptious woman, will sing "I'm Called Little Buttercup." John O. Fisher of Avon, N. Y., a theological student, becomes "naively" one who hates his fellow men in the role of the misshapen Dick Deadeye. Donald Taylor of North Hampton, N. H., makes an impressive Bill Bobstay, the bosky who has his hands full keeping Deadeye under control and who has his big moment in the show with the singing of the magnificent satire, "He is an Englishman."

BOYS' CLUBS OF BOSTON TO HOLD SWIMMING TOURNAMENT SOON

The Boys' Clubs of Boston Second Annual Swimming Tournament for Novices will start May 2 at the two club pools in Charlestown and Roxbury.

Last year the Tourney, conducted solely for boys between the ages of eight and eighteen, brought forth 100 boys who had never tasted competition.

Any boy, who has never represented a school or club swimming team may compete. Present Boys' Club members may not enter.

Events to be contested are:—Midgets 12 years and under, 20 yard Freestyle, 20 yard Breaststroke, 20 yard Backstroke, Diving (Front, Back, Front Jack, Front Somersault); Juniors 13—14 years old, 40 yard Breaststroke, 40 yard Backstroke, Diving (Front, Back, Front Jack, Front Somersault); Intermediates 15—16 years old 80 yard Freestyle, 60 yard Breaststroke, 60 yard Backstroke, Diving (Front, Back, Front Jack, Front Somersault); Seniors 17—18 years old, 220 yard Freestyle, 100 yard Freestyle, 60 yard Breaststroke, 60 yard Backstroke, Diving (Front, Back, Front Jack, Front Somersault).

There will be gold, silver and bronze medals given for 1st, 2nd and 3rd places in each event.

A registration fee of twenty-five cents is charged each contestant, payable at either District Headquarters. This sum entitles the boy to a membership in the Boys' Clubs of Boston until January 1st, 1933.

Boys registering for the meet may use the club pools for training purposes. Entries should be mailed to Swimming Director, Boys' Clubs of Boston, 15 Green Street, Charlestown, or 80 Dudley Street, Roxbury. State name, address, age and events (not more than two) that you desire to enter.

Furniture Company And Newspaper Publishers To Be In Trade Show

Charles F. McManus, prominent Arlington furniture dealer located at 719 Massachusetts avenue, will be among the exhibitors at the Arlington Trade Show in the Town Hall on the afternoons and evenings of May 10, 11 and 12.

Mr. McManus is making plans for an interesting demonstration which will interest every home-maker who attends the show.

The Arlington Daily News as well as the Arlington Advocate will each have a booth at the show which is under the personal direction of Walter Fields of Hingham.

RETURN FROM TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Miller of 231 Massachusetts avenue, Arlington, have returned from a ten-day motor trip which they enjoyed through New York state and Pennsylvania.

World Famous Circus Returns To Hub In May

Once again all roads lead to Boston for the limited engagement of Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Circus which opens Monday night, May 2, and continues for one week at Boston Garden. The opening performance is designated for the benefit of the Children's Hospital.

Wide-eyed children of all ages have been counting the days and absorbing the entrancing circus posters which proclaim the coming of this modern miracle of The Arabian Nights. The titan of the amusement world will come to Boston in its entirety direct from Madison Square Garden, New York City, where its 1932 tour opened officially three weeks ago. A number of new features, however, have been secured for the Boston engagement.

Heading an enlarged program of super-thrills is youthful Captain Beatty alone and single-handed in a gigantic steel arena with forty ferocious lions and tigers, the largest mixed group ever confronted by a trainer in the whole history of circuses.

Hundreds of thrills are woven into the brilliant tapestry of the circus performance this year. From Russia comes Miss Tamara, sensational aerialist and Europe's latest device for making Americans hold their breath. Other features new to Boston include Bombayo, the Man from India, mysterious new circus thriller; The Casterlillis, renowned acrobatic ladder experts in their North American debut. Madcap Dorothy Herbert, daring equestrienne, offers an exhibition of hurricane horsemanship in fitting tribute to the city that echoed the thundering hoofbeats of Paul Revere and his Concord bound riders.

Into the deepest jungles of French Equatorial Africa went circus representatives to return with a new tribe of monster-mouthed Ubangi Savages. Circus spectators at Boston Garden will see the intrepid Zaccini, human projectile, in longer and more terrific flights. An integral part of this kaleidoscopic whirl of color and action is a double-barreled barrage of comedy presented by a congress of 100 internationally-famous clowns.

An expanded menagerie this year features 50 elephants and 1000 rare wild animals including a herd of the loftiest giraffes in captivity.

This year prices are especially attractive with no less than 5,000 good seats at one dollar for every performance. Children under 12 years will be admitted at half price to reserved seats every afternoon except Saturday.

Special low-priced excursions to Boston Garden and the Circus are offered on the B. and M. Railroad. Station agents will furnish particulars.

The Arlington Junior Pals lost their first game of the season to the Arlington Mohawks. The Mohawks started off well, scoring six runs in the first four innings to the Junior's four. From then on it was all the Junior Pals' game. Preston of the Juniors turned in a wonderful relief game allowing only three hits and one run in six innings. Cronin who pitched for the Mohawks was strongly supported by his infield.

The Arlington police aims to please at all times.

Yesterday afternoon a little girl, only a few years old, wandered into the local station and made herself right at home. Propped up on a chair, she soon fell asleep. Shortly afterwards she awakened only to find that one of the officers had gone around the block and had brought back candy for her. She was later carefully put into bed where she was allowed to have her usual afternoon nap until worried parents, who had been searching for her, came to the station and claimed the child. The tot was more than thankful for the cordial reception given her. "It's all in a day's work," said the officer, who happens to be the proud father of quite a family himself.

Local Daughters Of America To Celebrate

The Arlington chapter of the Catholic Daughters of America is making final arrangements for its 21st anniversary celebration tomorrow evening at the Commander Hotel in Cambridge. The chairman of the committee, Mary Smith, will act as toastmistress at the banquet and introduce several prominent speakers. Following the banquet, a delightful entertainment will be given by a group of talented artists.

Engagement Of Former Local Girl Announced

The engagement of Miss Reba Hooker, daughter of Mrs. E. D. Hooker, formerly of Arlington, and now of 16 Ware street, Cambridge, has been announced. Miss Hooker is to marry Thomas Flint of Cambridge but no definite date has been set as yet. Miss Hooker is very well known in Arlington and in Cambridge where she is socially prominent.

Held in Lindy Kidnap Hunt

Following a report to police of Downingtown, Pa., by the Rev. G. Paul Musselman (inset), pastor of St. James Episcopal Church, Albert Lacher and Edith Crebbe (both above) are shown under arrest for questioning in connection with the Lindbergh kidnaping. Miss Crebbe, who claims to be a nurse, is said to have admitted writing letters to the Lindberghs professing knowledge of their child's whereabouts. Rev. Musselman told police that the couple came to Downingtown in poor financial circumstances, but seemed well supplied with money shortly after Col. Lindbergh paid $50,000 to supposed kidnap agents.

OPERATORS OF LIQUOR PLANT BROUGHT BEFORE COMMISSIONER IN HUB

Amiello Belzano, 79 Prince street and Thomas DeGuilo, 74 Prince street, both of Boston appeared before Commissioner Edward C. Jenney in the Federal Court at Boston yesterday morning. Both were arrested in the raid, which was conducted by the Arlington police with the assistance of Federal agents, while operating a large liquor plant on Silvia street last Friday afternoon.

The distillery operators were held in bail of $2500 each on the charge of manufacturing liquor. The men were also arraigned in the East Cambridge Criminal Court last Saturday morning on the charge of keeping and exposing alcoholic liquor for sale. Their case was continued until May 4.

Their arrest followed a sensational raid which was led by the local police department, last Friday afternoon, when two large stills of several hundred gallon capacity were found ready for operation in a lonely shack at the top of Appleton street.

VISITING NURSES' DRIVE PASSES $3,000 MARK

Contributions to the annual drive for funds now being sponsored by the Arlington Visiting Nurses' association have reached over $3,000. It was announced officially yesterday. The drive was to have closed last Saturday night but many canvassers were unable to turn in their contributions until yesterday. Others were being received this morning at the Menotomy Trust company which has custody of the money collected during the canvass.

It was announced yesterday that in an effort to attain the $5,000 mark which the association hopes will be collected for its work during the present year, the drive will continue for a few more days. A member of the committee in charge pointed out that the reason for the delay in raising the necessary $5,000 this year was the unusual amount of sickness among families of canvassers who, because of this fact, have been slowed up in contacting the people of their particular sections. Many people of the town have not even been contacted as yet and it is the hope of the committee that these people will cheerfully call at the Visiting Nurses' association office on Massachusetts avenue and make their contributions there. The committee does not intend to overlook a single family in the community. It was pointed out also yesterday that if every person in Arlington could contribute an average of only 20 cents apiece, the drive would surpass the quota originally set.

MORE SUGGESTIONS ARE MADE TO LOCAL GARDENERS

While it has always been necessary to make certain gardens useful, it is possible to allow the space and time for gardens which contribute chiefly beauty in this land of great open spaces and un-crowded areas. Fragrance has always been a deciding factor in the choice of flowers for home gardens. The sterner and most austere have softened before the incense poured from the heart of rose or carnation. Indeed it is often wondered that equal with the power of sweet flower fragrance had not power sounds to soothe the savage breast. Surely it is to flowers very like the voice to man wherefore, mayhap it is the garden choral.

It is in the charm of the old garden, as well as its form and plants, which we are seeking to recall when we make a new one like it; and this charm lies in the ancient estimate of homely, simple things at their true high

PRIMARIES ELECTION EXPECTED TO DRAW LIGHT VOTE LOCALLY

N. E. Council Seeks Opinion On Two Issues

Describing the proposed bonus payment as "a menace to the national credit and to business imperative necessity of balancing recovery" and emphasizing "the Federal budget through reasoned reduction of public expenditures and supplementary taxation," President Harry C. Knight of the New England Council today urged New England business organizations to make known their views on these two national issues. The suggestion was made in a letter to the presidents of such organizations in the six New England states, Council headquarters announced today.

President Knight suggests that each organization "contribute as promptly and forcefully as possible to an expression of New England business opinion on these two subjects" by the adoption of declarations and by communicating these declarations to Senators and Representatives.

"Such action on the part of New England business organizations at this time will, I believe, give reserved support to those in Washington now fighting for sound policies, demonstrate that New England business stands firm upon principles essential to business recovery and national welfare, and finally stimulate others, both groups and individuals to like action," President Knight's letter stated.

"For some time the New England Council, through every available channel has been urging both business and governmental agencies to effect as promptly and vigorously as possible, the adjustments made necessary by the radically changed conditions of the last two years. Action along these lines has been in part responsible for the somewhat greater degree of business stability manifest in New England. The New England Council is committed to promotion of New England's economic progress through leadership which will increase New England's contribution to the national well-being. It is therefore both consistent and desirable that New England make its voice heard now in Washington with respect to the two issues on which action is urged."

Polls Open In Arlington From Twelve Noon Today Until Eight O'Clock Tonight — Competition In Democratic Ranks Expected To Be Only Source of Attraction — Republican Slate of Delegates Solidly For Hoover and Small Party Turnout Is Anticipated—Voting Places Are Listed

As the clock struck twelve this noon, Arlington voters started to vote for their delegates, Democratic and Republican, who will nominate their respective Presidential ticket at the Chicago conventions next June. The polls will not close until eight o'clock this evening and it is not expected that the results, locally, will be known until a late hour.

Although presidential primaries are rare, happening only once in four years, very little excitement is being manifested. In the Democratic ranks, the competition is keen because of the fact that the party is split evenly and has two distinct slates, one list of delegates being pledged exclusively to Alfred E. Smith while the other is solidly pledged for Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt of New York. Despite the fact that the rivalry between the two factions is keen, the Democratic party in Arlington has been unusually quiet throughout the campaign and the possibility of bringing Mayor James M. Curley and James Roosevelt here to speak at a rally, boosting Roosevelt's father before today's primaries, failed to materialize. It was explained that the Robbins Memorial Town Hall had been engaged too far in advance for different public functions and there were no open dates remaining for a rally. Local Democrats had to content themselves with listening to fiery radio broadcasts by Mayor Curley and others over Boston stations last evening for their last-minute arguments before the primaries. Indications are that the Roosevelt slate will come through with a victory in this town, although experts point out that Smith delegates will win out in the State as a whole.

As for the Republican slate, the same does not hold true since all the delegates-at-large, the alternate delegates, the district delegates and alternate district delegates of this party are all pledged solidly for President Hoover. The turnout of Republican voters therefore is expected to be very small in Arlington as well as throughout the State.

The eyes of the country are turned particularly upon this State today since a victory for either Smith or Roosevelt delegates in Massachusetts will have a strong psychological effect upon the people as a whole.

Voters are urged to cast their ballot as early as possible through the remainder of the day.

Precinct 1 vote in the Crosby School, Precincts 2 and 4 vote in the Hardy School, Precincts 3 and 5 are consolidated and vote in Junior High School, East; Precincts 6 and 8 unite and vote in Robbins Memorial Town Hall, Precincts 7 and 9 join and vote in the Russell School, Precincts 10 and 12 in the Cutter School, Precinct 11 vote in the Highland House, Precinct 13 in the Peirce School and Precinct 14 in the Locke School.

ARLINGTON TO HELP IN NEAR EAST CLOTHING DRIVE ON MAY 16th

Arlington High And Wakefield Play Wednesday

Undaunted after the stinging 16-6 defeat which was handed them by the fast Winthrop High School nine at Spy Pond field last Saturday afternoon, the Arlington High School baseball outfit is ready to meet Wakefield High at Wakefield tomorrow afternoon.

Although last Saturday's game was important, being the Mystic Valley league opener for the local nine, the Arlington boys are not discouraged and are looking forward to a victory over the Wakefield boys tomorrow. Coach Ostergren gave his men quite a talk yesterday as a result of their heavy costly errors in the Winthrop game and it is expected that some of the weak spots in the team will be ironed out.

A number of local fans will journey to Wakefield to see the game.

Mayor Curley has announced through Albert A. Scott, Near East Regional Director for New England, the cooperation of city departments in the drive for used clothing, which will terminate on Bunde Day, May 16. The Arlington fire and police department will cooperate by remaining open to receive clothing on that day.

According to Mr. Scott the drive has the full support not only of the Mayor, but of Superintendent of Schools Patrick T. Campbell, the Fire and Police Commissioners and Father Quinlan, Diocesan Supervisor of Parochial Schools of Greater Boston.

Near East Bunde Day has also been sponsored by Governor Ely, and Augustus P. Loring has accepted the chairmanship of the Committee.

Tags will be distributed in all the schools of Greater Boston for the children to take to their homes. The fire and police stations throughout Greater Boston, including Arlington, will be open on Bunde Day, May 16, to receive the clothing. Full information concerning the campaign and additional tags may be obtained from Near East headquarters, 632 Little Building.

Mayor Curley's Proclamation is as follows:

"Again in Near East Relief Association makes its annual call for assistance, and has designated Monday, May 16, as Near East Bunde Day, and asks the generous-minded of the city to re-

Marriages Are Recorded Here

Several marriage returns were filed at the office of town clerk, E. Caroline Pierce yesterday. They included the following:

William T. Brogan, of Arlington and Ruth Fegan of Mattapan, married by Rev. W. J. Setzer in Manchester, New Hampshire.

Paul C. Collins, 10 Osgood street, Dorchester and Edna M. Turner, 17 Lockland avenue, Arlington, married last Saturday by Rev. W. J. Flaherty at St. Agnes' Church. Miss Turner is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Turner.

Francis J. Rocray, 55 Henderson street, Arlington and Gladys Richardson, 196 Summer street, this town, married by William A. Forbes, Cambridge Justice of the peace, last Saturday.

Leather Bag Is Lost By Arlington Woman

A leather bag was lost between 127 Medford street, Arlington, and Washington street, Boston, early yesterday morning according to a report made by Mrs. Clara M. Davis, of 127 Medford street, at the Arlington police headquarters yesterday. The bag, of brown leather, dropped from the running board of an automobile. It contained a bank book on the Worcester North Bank of Fitchburg, some clothing and jewelry. A teletype message was sent out by the local police in an effort to locate the grip.

Legion Post Meets Tonight

The Arlington American Legion post No. 39 will meet this evening in their headquarters on Massachusetts avenue and complete plans for the meeting of the District Council which is to take place at the old Town Hall building tomorrow evening.

The local post band, which made its first public appearance on April 19 for the annual Patriots' Day parade, has been arranging a special program which will be presented at the district meeting. William C. Arbuckle, district commander, will preside at the meeting tomorrow evening.

High School Notes

—Mrs. Mary Webb of the Commercial department who has been ill for the past few months has made a substantial gain and now appears well on the road to recovery.

—The High School band and Choral club were publicly thanked and congratulated by the Mayor and Dr. J. Stevens Kadesch, superintendent of schools, for their services during the celebration of Patriots' Day.

—M. H. S. pupils are cordially invited to attend the Open House Day of the Lowell Textile Institute on Friday, April 29.

—Misses Berget Reese and Willmina McBryne, teachers in the Commercial department, spent the vacation period in Washington, D. C.

—The Boys' Debating club met in Room 204 at 1.45 yesterday. Plans for future debates were discussed.

—Yesterday noon the Seniors who had not already drawn plans for the semi-finals of the Prize Speaking contest, did so in Room 202. The semi-finals take place next Monday and Tuesday.

—Miss Ruth Heintz, '32, returned to school yesterday after having been absent for the past few weeks with an infected knee.

—Paul Finn, '33, is being treated for an infected hand, the result of a cut received during vacation.

Tragic End to Marital Drama

Above are the principals in a gruesome drama of marital hatred that recently came to a tragic climax in Venice, Cal. Enmity that burned in the heart of Mrs. Rebecca Greenberg, 60, for 32 years, flamed into sudden action and as her husband, Morris, lay sleeping, she calmly poured lye into his eyes. Today, Greenberg, totally blind, fights for life while his wife sits in a prison cell, a strange look of peace on her face. Photo shows the couple with one of their six children. The woman told police she had planned her vengeance for years.

WASHINGTON D.C.

In The Realm Of Sport

by Joe Doherty

Permits are no longer issued for Summer street playground, the Park Commission having accepted the change in name to the Garrett Barry playground. Evidently there are to be no dedication exercises.

Speaking of playgrounds, something ought to be done to relieve the present conditions at Park street. The boys who played there Sunday say it took a couple of hours to dig the dirt out of their eyes afterwards. That playground has more loose sand than the other six in Medford put together and when the wind blows as it did Sunday it is necessary to call time and everybody turns their backs to it.

The conditions were the same last season but the members of the North Medford Club were ambitious enough to spray the hose around occasionally.

Big doings are in order for the Massachusetts High School Headmasters in their annual spring gathering at Framingham today. The new eligibility rule, which was adopted late last December, a change in the age limit from 20 to 19, the setting of the date for the outdoor state track meet and other important issues will be discussed.

The new eligibility rule, which allows boys who have flunked either their Freshman or Sophomore years to compete in any sport for an extra year, is scheduled to go into effect next December, after the grid season has been completed. Now most of the coaches favor its beginning with the start of the fall term, thereby allowing boys to take part in the coming grid season. A reconsideration of the time stipulated is quite probable.

Schools in the western part of the state threaten to withdraw from the association unless a change in the age limit is made, allowing any boy to compete as many years as possible while under 19. The present rule calls for a 20-year age limit with the boys allowed to compete only as many years as their courses require.

Ol' Bill Lindsay holds a slight lead for high season average in the City Bowling League which brings its schedule to a close on Thursday and Friday evenings of this week. Bill is whacking the pins for a 102 mark. Tom Faucett, Fred Rideout, Ferri and Twitchell are all bunched close behind the veteran.

Johnny Grinnell is expected to toe the mound for the Tufts Freshmen in the game with Huntington at Boston tomorrow. Johnny is handy on either end of the battery, having pitched the opener and gone behind the bat in the following game. Joe Pignone, another Medford lad, will play at short for Huntington.

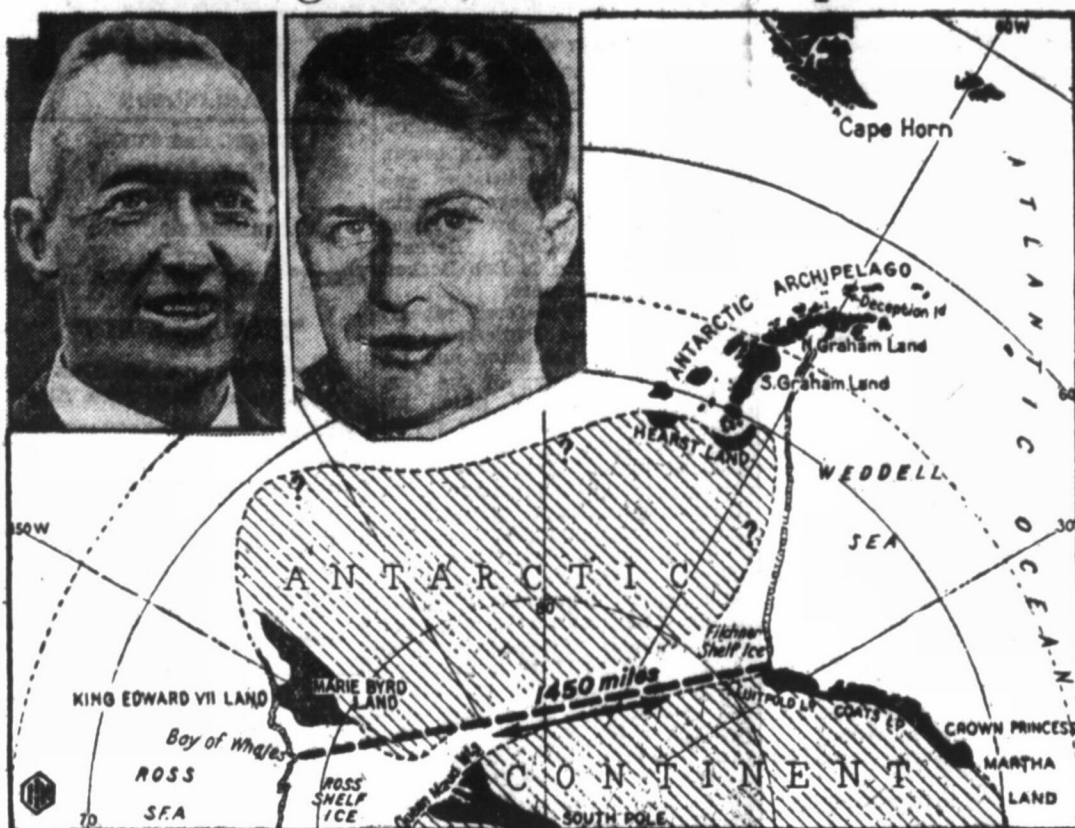

Bump Spaulding is a crack pitcher but he hasn't had much of a chance at Tufts this season. With Felix Andruskiewicz and Lefty Hatch, veterans of last season, in great form and a hard schedule ahead Coach Ken Nash cannot afford toicker with Bump and other promising hurlers of the 1931 Freshmen outfit. Spaulding will join the Civics in the City League when school closes in June.

The Civic Club has signed George Callahan as coach for the coming season. George directed the St. James' team through the second half of the City League last season. And who should be the opponent for the Civics in the opening game on Sunday but St. James. The game will be played on Wellington playground. George will officially take command in the exhibition game with the B. A. U. at Barry playground tomorrow night and expects to have his team in top form for the tilt with his former charges.

We could write columns about the City League for the interest is pitched high with the set of opening games only five days away. All eight clubs are eager for the start, each hoping to be on top when the first half of 21 games comes to a close on July third. President Prior will assign the umpires for the openers at the meeting in the Aldermanic chamber Friday night.

With baseball now in full swing spring football takes a back seat. Medford High's practice scrimmage is off. The squad got away to a late start and rain set in two afternoons when scrimmages were scheduled. Coach Hubba Collins will probably call the boys out a week earlier in the fall to make up for the work lost this spring.

Planning New Antarctic Expedition

Undertaking what Sir Ernest Shackleton called "the last great adventure in South Polar exploration," Lincoln Ellsworth (left in inset), American explorer and companion of Roald Amundsen in the expedition to the North Pole, is planning a flight in the dirigible Norge over the great Antarctic continent in September, 1933. Bernt Balchen (right), famous flyer, who accompanied Rear-Admiral Richard Byrd to the South Pole, will pilot the expedition, which will establish its base at Framheim on the Bay of Whales, not far from the bases of Amundsen and Byrd. It is planned to cover the 1,450 miles that separate the Ross Sea, on one side of the Antarctic continent, from the Weddell Sea, on the opposite side. The flight and return would be made non-stop, a total distance of 2,900 miles. Black portion of above map shows the known land. Shaded portion represents conjectured land.

Medford Woman Receives Bequest From Portland Man

A conditional bequest of from $25,000 and $50,000 is incorporated in the will of George H. Beadle, filed in Portland, Me., yesterday, in behalf of Alice E. Eaton of Medford, Mass., depending on the value of his holdings.

Joseph Wentworth of Boston is made executor of the will of Mr. Beadle, who was a Boston stevedore and resident of Winthrop. He died in Cape Elizabeth last week.

Two Highland Trust Cases Not Pressed

Indictments pending in the Middlesex superior criminal court against Ray R. Rideout and Miss Helen M. Averbach, officers of the Highland Trust Company of Somerville, were not pressed yesterday by William G. Andrews, assistant district attorney, although Miss Averbach sought a trial and complete exoneration.

Rideout, who was chairman of the board, was charged with being accessory before the fact to larceny from the bank, and Miss Averbach was charged with larceny of $3257.50 from the savings department of the bank. It developed at the time the indictments were returned that the bank lost nothing, and Miss Averbach asserted that she had acted under orders in the transaction in question.

WINCHESTER

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Brown of Villanova, Penn., formerly of this town, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Eunice Dennison, to John Buckman Drisko, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Johnson Drisko of Lloyd street. No date has been set for the wedding.

WINCHESTER

The funeral of James H. McCraven, 72, of 23 Eaton street, was held at his home yesterday morning at 8.15. A solemn high mass of requiem was celebrated in St. Mary's Church at 9 o'clock by Rev. Conrad J. Quirbach, assisted by Rev. James Lynch, a deacon, and Rev. Andrew O'Brien of Medford, sub-deacon. The church was filled with relatives, friends and associates of Mr. McCraven, who had been an employee of the town Highway Department many years. Interment was in Calvary Cemetery, East Woburn.

The annual Winchester horse show, given in aid of the operating suite at the Winchester Hospital, will be held Saturday, May 14 at Goods Riding School, Franklin avenue, West Medford.

Nels F. S. Ferre of the Newton Theological Institution was the preacher at the services held in the First Baptist Church Sunday. At the morning service he preached on "The Ascending Christ," and in the evening his topic was "Unchanging Sin in an Unchanging World." Both services were well attended.

The Men's Club of the First Congregational Church extend an invitation to all men of other churches who are interested in photography to attend Dr. Toller's lecture Thursday evening at 8 o'clock in the parish house of the church. Plans will also be made to form a camera club if enough men are interested.

Fire Chief David H. DeCourcy has recalled all fire permits, and will not issue any new ones for the time being.

The Men's Club of the Epiphany Church held a short meeting after church services Sunday morning. During the business session plans were made for the May field day, which will be held at Marshfield. Pres. H. J. Olmstead presided.

Twins Have Envious Record On Honor Roll

The Misses Barbara and Marion Broderick, twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Roy L. Broderick of 34 Thatcher street, Medford, are outstanding members of the sophomore class at the Medford High school. For scholastic standing they do not have to take second place with any of their classmates. They have maintained high marks since entering high school, and are among the few holding highest honor on the school honor roll. All through grammar and the elementary grades they were always mentioned on the honor roll.

Miss Edith Gillis of Summer street, a sophomore at Lowell Teachers' College, took part in a play given by her section entitled, "Applied Psychology."

Jumbos Take Colby by 5-2

A four-run surge in the sixth inning pulled the Tufts College varsity nine through with a 5-2 decision over Colby College on the Oval yesterday afternoon.

Felix Andruskiewicz, veteran Brown and Blue finger, was in his usual top form, holding the Maine collection to four scattered hits. Tufts obtained seven bingles from the offerings of Farnum, Verge and Miller being credited with two apiece. Verge also shone in the field, handling eight chances perfectly. The summary:

Prof. George S. Miller To Speak At Hillside Men's Club Friday Eve.

The Medford Improvement Association will hold its monthly meeting at the Hillside Men's club, Friday evening, with Prof. George S. Miller of Tufts as the principal speaker. Others who will address the gathering will be Prof. Samuel Connor of Tufts, Charles T. Daly, president of the Medford Chamber of Commerce, Joseph J. Laurie and Joseph Merenda.

The meeting will openly discuss problems affecting the Hillside District.
Tee-Em-See of the Mercury will show slides depicting old Medford. The pictures to be shown were taken by members of the old Mystic Camera Club and the late George W. Hersey. They are from the collection owned by the Medford Historical society.

Charles A. Cooper, president of the Medford Improvement association will preside. The meeting will be open to the public.

Miss Edleen McDouglrick of Hamilton street spent the past week in Portland, Me.

To Elect Delegates At Meeting of Elks On Thursday Night

There will be an election of delegates and alternates to the Massachusetts Elks convention, to be held at Northampton, June 12 and 14, at the regular session of Medford lodge, 915, B. P. O. E., Thursday evening in Elks hall. Exalted Ruler Anthony F. R. Novelline will preside.

A report of the investigating committee on applications will be made. There will be no initiation at this session.
William McSweeney of Salem, has been chosen as the orator for the lodge's Mothers' Day exercises at the meeting on May 12th. Mr. McSweeney is a great orator.

The street car and the faces there
Provide a kind of plan.
To study folks, if one should care,
To note his fellow man.

Expressions vary as you look,
And features vary, too,
In human traits, just like a book
Compared from motives true.

We do admit that solemn thought
Prevails among the throng,
Suggesting trials bravely fought
As life proceeds along.

And here and there a smile
Appears,
Perhaps a laugh or two;
Which for the moment check the Fears.
That maybe are with you.

And care-worn faces soon become,
Relaxed and soothed the while
How true it is—most everyone
Is cheered by just a smile.

What caused the smile? Oh no
One cares,
What chemist formed its beams?
They have the ride who pay their Fares.
The smiles are free it seems.

And kindly courtesies are shown
Despite the trend of speed,
The seat hog now and then is Known—
But he is scarce indeed.

So all in all we must confess,
The traits of humans are
About the same, no more no less,
Within the trolley car.

GIRL SCOUT BETTY—Better Homes Week—By Montfort Amory

"Better Homes Week" finds Girl Scout little Betty and her dog Frisky on the job early to help fix up the little house for the luncheon and reception the troop is to give.

The Mayor and his wife, who are the first guests to arrive, find everything shining and spickety. Betty, as presiding hostess, is confident that the day is going to be a success because everything is in readiness.

With flowers from their own gardens on the table, and the most distinguished citizens of the city as their honored guests, the girls feel that their labors have been well worth while. The day becomes a red letter one for Mary when Elsie Honor, the Mayor, compliments her on the excellence of the luncheon, which she has cooked.

GIRL SCOUT BETTY—Spring Gardening—By Montfort Amory

Frisky, the pup, contributes his most solemn attention as Betty and Mary inaugurate the first day of National Garden Week by starting work in their Girl Scout garden.

"You may watch us, but you must not touch," warns Betty, as Frisky, alert and full of plans for his own, stands by.

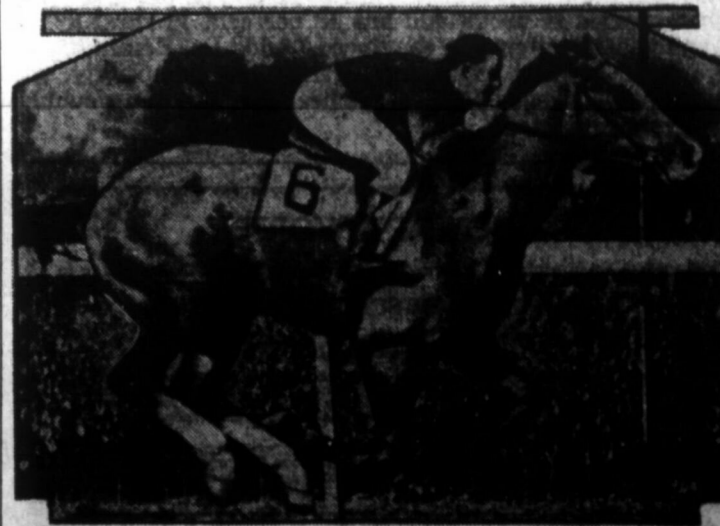

The girls having gone, Frisky proceeds to do a little planting for himself. Just the spots for a new bone.

"It's a good thing for you that this is also 'Be Kind to Animals Week,'" says Betty, who returned just in time to catch the mischievous Frisky in the act.

"Hunch Horse" for Kentucky

For superstitious followers of the turf who make a close study of signs and portents, the horse above might be a worthwhile prospect. It is "Scotch Gold," which has been nominated for the 1932 Kentucky Derby, to be run at Louisville, Ky., May 7. "Scotch Gold" is quoted in the Winter books at 100-1.

PROHIBITION DIRECTOR PRAISES CHIEF

In comparison with the average community, Arlington is a pretty dry town and its people generally are law abiding. There must be a reason, and our local police department under the able supervision of Chief Archie F. Bullock certainly has something to do about it. This was brought out most forcefully yesterday afternoon when Dennis Lordan, Prohibition Director of Greater Boston, enthusiastically praised Chief Bullock for the successful raid which was conducted here last Friday afternoon.

The two operators of the distillery were brought before Commissioner Edwin C. Jenney in the Federal Court at Boston yesterday morning. Referring to the case, Mr. Lordan said: "It was through Chief Bullock that the seizure of this liquor plant was made. Now, I am sure that the two men arrested at the plant will not return to Arlington in an attempt to start a new plant there."

"We, as prohibition enforcement agents, have always had the best of co-operation from the Arlington police, particularly since Chief Bullock has taken the helm. Arlington is a clean town—we never have much occasion to go there and the still which was seized last Friday was the first of any consequence ever found in that town. I am sure that the seizure could not have been made unless Chief Bullock and his men had been right on the job. I am looking forward to a continuance of this splendid spirit of co-operation. I could not give too much praise to Chief Bullock's work."

Such a statement, coming directly from Mr. Lordan is worthy of note and certainly should be looked upon with pride by Arlington residents. Individuals are too often eager to criticize the police in their methods, and most often it is done unjustly. In this particular raid, the Arlington police led the way and then called in the Federal agents in order that the arrest on the liquor manufacturing charge might be made for otherwise, the conviction could not have been made because of the repeal of the Baby Volstead act.

Arlington, then, certainly has a right to feel proud of its police department.

ADVICE TO THE MOTORIST

The following advice to the motorist, given by Maxwell Halsey of the National Bureau of Casualty and Surety Underwriters, should be impressed upon every driver:

1. Regulate your speed to driving conditions. Twenty-five miles per hour may be more dangerous than 45 miles per hour under certain conditions.
2. Do not drive faster than will permit you to stop within the assured clear distance ahead. Some one may suddenly come out of an intersection or around a curve.
3. Know the rules and regulations and obey them. They are designed to bring safety and their disobedience will cause accidents.
4. Keep on your side of the road, it is the safe side.
5. Do not pass unless you can see that no one is coming and that you have enough room.
6. Signal before you turn and turn from the correct lane.
7. Drive smoothly—the unexpected is liable to cause accidents.
8. Have your car inspected and maintain it in good operating condition.
9. Give the pedestrian more than his share of the right of way—pick on some one your size.
10. Slow down and be particularly careful when pavement is slippery, when visibility is poor and during the evening peak hour—4 to 6 p. m.

These rules deserve careful study. Following them should eliminate, to the greatest degree, the possibility of accident. They are based on courtesy and common sense—two great friends of accident prevention.

THE KEYNOTE OF MAY DAY

When May Day—National Child Health Day was observed a year ago, the information which had been gathered by the White House Conference on Child Health and Protection was still new to parents, officials, committees, and study groups concerned with promoting the health of children. Since then the findings of the Conference have begun to be assimilated and new programs are evolving from the new knowledge gained. The keynote for May Day 1932 is, therefore, significant—"Support Your Community Child Health Program: It Protects Your Home."

In reviewing the early results thus far of the White House Conference, Samuel McC. Hamill, M.D., Chairman of the Section on Medical Service, and President of the American Child Health Association, says: "The effects of this Conference will be so far-reaching that only after years have passed can the full scope of its influence be realized." The first Committee report of this Section to be published was that on Pediatric Education. It was based on a carefully planned, exhaustive study of the whole subject of pediatric education. "It does not," says Dr. Hamill, "present a course to qualify the man who will devote his entire practice to the care of children, but it outlines a procedure which will qualify the general practitioner—who after all, cares for the great mass of children—to serve intelligently and effectively. It lays special stress upon preventive procedures."

Already a number of medical schools have revamped their courses in accordance with the recommendations of the report, and extension divisions of state universities are planning courses in post-graduate instruction in order that the newer knowledge can be brought to the practitioner.

The report on Health Protection for the Pre-School Child shows the relatively limited extent to which well known and adequately proven procedures are being applied. But 21 per cent of all city children and but 7 per cent of all rural children have been protected against smallpox by vaccination, and with regard to diphtheria immunization but 21 per cent have been protected in urban and but 18 per cent in rural areas. "The Medical Section was convinced," adds Dr. Hamill, "that if we could at once apply, intelligently and completely, the knowledge we already possess, the health of children would be effectively protected."

Daddy Sunshine Club Rules

1. Be kind and helpful to others.
2. Look both ways when crossing streets.
3. Always be kind to dumb animals.
4. Write a letter to Daddy Sunshine, or have Mother or Dad write it for you, every now and then. Try to bring a "Ray" of Sunshine into the lives of your parents and others every day of the week and every week of the year.
5. Write your letters and stories to Daddy Sunshine, in care of this paper. He will answer them in the Daddy Sunshine Column.

These rules are not very difficult for good girls and boys to keep. Most of them are kept by them anyway. Mail your letters and stories to Daddy Sunshine, in care of this paper. He will answer them in the Daddy Sunshine Column.

Join the club all you have to do is promise to keep the rules—and keep them.

The Broadcast

From all indications the broadcast last evening of the Daddy Sunshine club from Station WLOE, at 7:30 o'clock, was enjoyed by the many members of the club. The theme song, "Attention," opened the program, with Paul Petersen singing and Dorothy and Genevieve accompanying at the piano and guitar, respectively.

Daddy Sunshine spoke briefly on spreading cheer and sunshine and then introduced "Mal" who presented the program.

"Mal" sang his usual comedy number, which went over with a "bang," and was followed by Peggy Bird who sang "Whistle and Blow Your Blues Away." Little three-year-old Eddie Dalton sang "Somebody Loves You" and he was followed by the Sunshine Trio, Angelina Grilli, pianist; Rita McKinley and Lilly Dino, vocalists.

Daddy Sunshine and Little Margaret Brauer, presented a clever little sketch entitled "At the Postoffice." Margaret was in her usual good form and did a splendid job.

Jackie Dryden, youthful exponent of the dancing art, and one of the best, had the honor of presenting the first tap dance over a Daddy Sunshine club program. Jackie first favored with a solo song and then went into his tap number.

"Mal" and Baby Leonie Simons, in their imitable weekly sketch, amused the many listeners in their clever dialogue written and arranged by "Mal." As is usual Baby Leonie closed the sketch with a song. They were followed by Edith Day of East Boston who entertained with a vocal selection. Then came Anita Prentiss of Quincy who also presented a popular number.

Margaret Brauer was again on the program and gave a clever reading entitled "It Takes a Woman." Marjorie O'Gara sang "Snuggle On Your Shoulder," and was followed by Mildred Anderson in a fine rendition of one of the latest songs. Her sister accompanied her. Daddy Sunshine closed the broadcast, with a brief talk announcing the fact that a large number of children were wanted for the Kiwanis play, to report at Room of the Central building, Medford square, Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The children will take part in a pageant during the show "The College Flapper," on Monday and Tuesday nights, in the Roberts Junior High school.

Owing to the fact that both Daddy Sunshine and "Mal" are to have leading roles in the play, they will be unable to take part in the broadcast next Monday. But Paul Petersen and Uncle Bob Mills, will present the program for them.

"Mal" has the leading male role in "The College Flapper."

Without "Uniforms" Daddy Sunshine: We feel like a couple of soldiers without uniforms. Why? Because you haven't sent us our pins yet.

The boys and girls around here won't believe we belong to the Sunshine club because we can't show them the pin.

We have twenty pounds of tin foil for you. Sorry we couldn't get more. Will you send someone after it? It is too heavy for us to carry up to you. Will you send our pins along too? Hoping to see our letter in the Mercury soon.

We remain, happily yours,

A Poem

Dear Daddy Sunshine:
Here is a bit of poetry my mother and I made up. Here's to Mal, with his sunny smile.
Him and the club make life worthwhile;
And here's to Daddy Sunshine, kind, jolly and true.
And you will find when he's around,
You will never feel lonely or blue.
Sincerely,
Edith Day,
47 Eutaw street,
East Boston.

Thanks Edith. Both "Mal" and

Daddy Sunshine should indeed feel proud—or should they blush?—at the sentiment expressed in this little poem. They will try, however, to bring sunshine into the lives of all whom they meet or whom they can reach by way of the radio or other means.

Arlington Theatre Hits

Polina Negri in "A Woman Commands" and "Stepping Sisters," starring Louise Dresser and Minna Gombell are the feature pictures showing at the Capitol Theatre in Arlington this week. Both have been rated very highly by critics all over the country.

At the Regent Theatre, the feature attraction today is that lovable character, Will Rogers in "Ambassador Bill." This picture is a riot! And added to this super-attraction is "Trader Horn," starring your old favorite Harry Carey.

Will Rogers dressed in a boiled shirt, as the backwoods American ambassador attached to an etiquette-ridden European court. Such is the guise in which we see the famous funster in "Ambassador Bill," his latest Fox picture, an envoy whose first diplomatic (?) act is to suggest that they call off a special presentation because the queen has "hurry feet!"

"Ambassador Bill" is a perfect "fit" for the famous reporter-actor due to the fact that it allows him to "be himself." Famous as a pungent commentator on current topics, and as an "unofficial ambassador" sent to laugh internationally troubles away, the film simply makes him re-live events that he must know by heart.

Let us in the timely scene of a glamorous little kingdom ruled over by a boy, it deals with the political machinations of a wily dictator to make himself the real power behind the throne. Rogers, in the role of the worldly-wise "Dollar Bill" Harper, has something to say about this, however. And says it, naturally, in a manner that would split anybody's sides.

The picture is not, however, limited to wisecracks. No more than is Rogers' himself in his daily writings. Even some of the laughs themselves come close to tears. This is particularly true of some of the sequences played by Rogers and young Tad Alexander, who enacts the role of the boy king. One of the best of these is that in which the youngster is made to realize that he has been a poor sport in his first baseball game.

Many of the wittiest quips in "Ambassador Bill" are said to have been written, or re-written, by Rogers himself. The cowboy-humorist seems to find it almost impossible to go through a picture without injecting some of his own pungent comments in it. For which it does not suffer in the least!

Sam Taylor directed "Ambassador Bill," and some of those seen in support of Rogers include Greta Nissen, Marguerite Churchill, Ted Alexander and Gustav von Seyffertitz.

Without "Uniforms" Daddy Sunshine: We feel like a couple of soldiers without uniforms. Why? Because you haven't sent us our pins yet.

The boys and girls around here won't believe we belong to the Sunshine club because we can't show them the pin.

We have twenty pounds of tin foil for you. Sorry we couldn't get more. Will you send someone after it? It is too heavy for us to carry up to you. Will you send our pins along too? Hoping to see our letter in the Mercury soon.

worth. Old fashioned gardening is not summed up in the planting of a flower garden wherein the walks and beds conform to the lines laid down in some old design.

Many gardens, according to the Division of Information of the United States George Washington Bicentennial Commission, will suggest the Colonial influence by planting flowers included in the following list:

Anemone coronaria; anemone; many colors and mixtures of red, blue, and white. Anemone hortensis; Spanish and marigold; red, rosepurple, whitish. Anemone fulgens; Scarlet and John. Robin Hood; vivid scarlet, black stamens. Anthemis cotula; dog fennel, mayweed, white. Anthemis nobilis; double chamomile; white. Anthemis tinctoria; yellow starwort; yellow, brown center. Anthericum Liliago; St. Bernard's Lily; Savoy spiderwort; white.

Centauria cyannus; Cyanus, cornflower, bachelor's buttons; blue, purple, bluish, red, white or mixed. Centauria moschata; Sultan's flower, sweet Sultan; white, bluish to purple, yellow Centauria nigra; great cyanus, Spanish sea snapweed; blue-purple. Centauria splendens; Spanish cornflower; pale purple, bluish. Cheiranthus Cheiri; wall flower or winter gilliflower; varieties that are "great single, deep gold, great double, red, pale yellow." Chenopodium botrys; oak of Jerusalem or feather geranium; for foliage.

Dianthus plumarius; Scotch, grass, garden or pheasant's-eye pink; white, light red, purple—"mostly single, some feathered." Dictamnus albus; fraxinella or bastard dittany; white. Dictam-

Helen Kruger of Newton, despite her pettiness, is held up as "a splendid fellow" in her role as Tom Tucker, the Midshipman. Hebe, Sir Joseph's cousin and leader of the "sisters and cousins whom he reckons by the dozens" is played by Kathleen Howard of Medford. Bernard Graves of Malden is Bob Becket, the carpenter's mate.

When the "Pinafore" rehearsal is finished Professor Center lays down his baton and becomes The Foreman of the Jury in "Trial by Jury," which his son Edward W. Center, is coaching and directing. The leading role in "Trial," the presentation of the alumni, is taken by Irwin C. Cowper, one of Boston's best-known radio announcers. As the Learned Judge, Cowper hears the breach of promise suit of Angelina against Edward and finally settles the problem by marrying her himself. Cowper's musical amount of his rise as a young lawyer is particularly well adapted to his style of singing and acting, which was so successful as Ko Ko in "The Mikado." Buntorne in "Patience," and the Lord Chancellor in "Iolanthe."

Pauline and John Ahern of Weymouth, although brother and sister in everyday life, become former lovers in "Trial by Jury." Pauline as the broken-hearted plaintiff Angelina, and John the heartless defendant. How the plaintiff had "already bought her trousseau" will be explained by William O. Goss of Belmont who will oppose Goss as the defense counsel, but will not be able to get a word in edgewise.

The three bridesmaids will be Alice Guertin of Cambridge, who sang the title role of "Patience," four years ago; Mrs. Marian Larson, and Mrs. Callista Harris of Boston. As Callista Crane, Mrs. Harris sang the part of Katisha in "The Mikado," and Mrs. Larson sang in the choruses of "The Mikado" and "Patience" as Marian Kelly.

The women's chorus for "Pinafore" includes Raymie E. Axlerod, Lawrence; Ruth E. Bailey, Woburn; Florence V. Barrett, Brighton; Jane Brooks, Milton; Marion Baskin, Roxbury; Mary Conlan, Cambridge; Betty Follansbee, Malden; Anne H. Gray, Hopkinton; Margaret J. Guerin, East Bridgewater; Elizabeth Howes, Lowell; Lillian Halper, Brockton; Priscilla Hayden, Newton; Dorothy Hughes, Abington; Edna Johnson, Wayne, Me.; Ruth Kramer, Roxbury; Pauline Kravitz, Mattapan; Mildred W. Mulcahy, Lawrence; Gertrude Novick, Dorchester; Hazel Noyes, Malden; LaVerne S. Powers, Hyde Park; Janet Quincy, Portland, Me.; Wilma Richey, Brookline; Helen L. Stevenson, North Easton; Katherine Sutton, Belmont; Margaret Wayne, Girardsville, Pa.

The men's chorus for the undergraduate production includes: Frank Appell, Hyde Park; H. Marston Bradbury, Arlington; Herbert Brown, Boston; Stephen Cleorella, Somerville; Seth Field, Northfield; Walter D. Finch, Chatham, N. Y.; Solomon Gootman, Roxbury; Harry L. Greenblatt, Malden; Stuart J. Harris, Boston; Lawrence Hayford, Marlboro; Earl Kaller, Patchogue, N. Y.; Edward S. Kandib, Dorchester; Robert Marden, Winthrop; Edward Parker, Fall River; Reuben Plevinsky, Haverhill; Presard, Fall River; Palmer D. Ton Potter, Boston; Robert Rich-Scammell, Milton; George W. Slade, Chelsea; P. Herbert Sullivan, Hudson; Frank Wheaton, Millville, N. J.; Ed Winslow, Brookline; William N. Woodland, Newport, R. I.

Sir Joseph Porter's guard of honor will consist of six marines. The marine sentry on duty on the quarterdeck of H. M. S. Pinafore throughout the opera will be John M. Anderson of Winthrop. The marine guard will be: Robert Drake, Pa.; Norman Rogers, Salem; Joseph Cohen, Worcester; Louis Simmons, Worcester; Edward Casey, Boston; and Joseph Dinarello, East Boston.

BELMONT

The local Police Department is to have a baseball team again this season. They feel they have even a better team than last year. The candidates have been notified to get in shape for the games. Practice is being held on Town Field.

Recently a Scottish Clan auxiliary was instituted here but the name was not chosen until later. The new auxiliary will be known as Lady MacLean Lodge 74. A benefit performance for the Belmont Cadets was held in the Strand Theatre Sunday evening, the program being made up of moving pictures and vaudeville acts. The money will go for uniforms for the boys.

The members of St. Luke's Band and the Boy Cadets received Holy Communion in a body in St. Luke's Church Sunday morning, the boys attending in full uniform. After the mass the boys enjoyed a Communion breakfast.

LEINGTON

The Rotary Club has received a letter from William J. Brundick of the Boy Scouts of Millersville, Penn., stating that each year a tree is planted on the campus of the Millersville State Teachers College. These trees are to come from the 48 States in the Union, and each from some historic place. The first 13 trees to be planted are to represent the 13 original States of the Union and it is Massachusetts turn to send a tree. These trees are properly marked and the historic records are preserved in the library of the State College.

Edwin B. Worthen, historian of the town and member of the Rotary, has sent on word that in the very near future he will have a young elm taken from the Old Belfry Hill and shipped to the college.

The Catholic Woman's Club will hold a pie social in the clubhouse on Waltham street this evening. The afternoon bridge and tea of the club will be held as usual tomorrow afternoon.

Fire-Chief Gasoline Placed On Sale In Medford

A new gasoline, produced according to government specifications for use in ambulances, fire engines and other emergency vehicles, is now on retail sale.

Announcement of the new fuel was made by local officials of The Texas Company who said the product, to be known as Texaco Fire-Chief Gasoline, would replace the original 'dry gasoline' introduced by them in 1926. The new gasoline sells at no extra cost.

"The original 'dry gasoline,'" The Texas Company announcement said, "was a revolutionary step forward in the development of motor fuels. Motorists were quick to recognize its properties: Easy starting, snappy acceleration, maintenance of power, freedom from crankcase dilution, complete combustion, greater mileage than anti-knock rating.

"The 'dry gasoline' started when it was supposed to start. It responded quickly to the slightest touch of the accelerator. In warm weather, when the engine became heated, the fuel continued to burn evenly and completely, with entire absence of so-called 'vaporlock.' The noticeable absence of heavy deposits meant that no unburned gasoline seeped past the cylinder rings. It meant freedom from crankcase dilution, longer life to the motor oil, minimum repair bills and assurance of proper lubrication with the right grade of oil in the car.

OCTANE NUMBER IMPROVED

"The Texas Company, however, continued its efforts to develop an ever better motor fuel, a fuel which under the most adverse conditions imaginable could be relied upon to the utmost. The result is Texaco 'Fire-Chief,' as great an improvement over the original Texaco 'dry gasoline' as the latter was over the motor fuels generally marketed in 1926.

"In Texaco Fire-Chief all of the superior qualities of Texaco 'dry gasoline' have been not only retained but intensified. The octane number of the new fuel has been materially improved so that it is now an outstanding product in anti-knock quality among non-premium gasolines.

"For use in emergency equipment, such as fire engines, ambulances and military vehicles, the United States Government has specified since 1931 a gasoline known as 'Motor Fuel V.' An advanced process, developed and perfected by The Texas Company, made possible the production of this 'ideal' gasoline on a commercial scale and made it practicable to offer it for retail sale at no extra price.

"The Texas Company will continue to market Texaco-Ethyl Gasoline, which is now a blend of Texaco Fire-Chief Gasoline and Ethyl brand of anti-knock compound, making it an outstanding premium-priced motor fuel."

"The G. T. K. sorority have returned after enjoying a brief stay at Lake Boone last week. The girls are Misses Beverly Freeman, Eleanor Richardson, Ruth Sherry, Betty Adams, Nancy Corvelli and Jean Gilbert.

Bad Check Passer Is Before Court

Howard A. Winn, a druggist, claiming to be a native of Nebraska, was given a three months' suspended term in the House of Correction with restitution on some bad check charges preferred by the Medford police, by Judge Davis at court yesterday.

He was brought in by Lieut. Buffum from the Billerica House of Correction, having previously served terms at Barnstable, New Bedford and Fitchburg, on bad check cases. He is six feet four and was very easy to identify. The Brighton police sent a warrant to be served on him after the Medford cases were adjusted. He was last sentenced at the Somerville court.

Chauncey O. McKenna, Wakefield, drunk and operating, continued to May 3 on pleas of not guilty.

John J. Crowley, Medford, failing to slow down, pleaded nolo and on file.

Daniel J. Kervin, drunk and disturbing the peace at Melrose, fined $10 on each charge.

Wm. M. Doran and Leo J. Shea, Everett, drunk, 30 days each suspended and previously suspended terms of 15 days each were made effective.

Michael J. Foley, Wakefield, drunk, 15 days suspended. Richard A. Montgomery, Boston, passing an El car on the left in Everett, fined $5.

Kolman Hendler, Malden, larceny of a piano from Sadie Gophen, acquitted. Max Reiser was his counsel.

Geo. Murphy, Medford, operating after his right had been suspended, House of Correction, ten days.

St. Joseph's Girls' Harmonica Club Meets

A meeting of St. Joseph's Girls' Harmonica club was held at the home of Miss Teresa Hegarty of South street, Medford, Monday night. Many of the girls were disappointed because they did not receive their harmonicas, but every effort is being made to secure them for the next meeting.

Among the members present were: Eunice Barry, Agnes Boudreau, Elizabeth Carney, Mary Carney, Irene Carroll, Anna Collins, Catherine Collins, Nellie Collins, Helen Dwyer, Rita Doyle, Frances Good, Rita Glynn, Katherine Healey, Betty Kilman, Dorothy Kirwan, Betty Kiley, Helen Kelleher, May Kelley, Teresa Kelley, Dorothy Leonard, Grace Leonard, Lillian Leonard, Catherine Meagher, Marion McIsaac, Miriam Murphy, Virginia Murphy, Winnifred Murphy, Helen Myers, Ruth Mulligan, Marguerite Mahoney, Catherine Nestor, Gertrude Norton, Catherine O'Connor, Helen Colucci, Veronica Ryan, Virginia Schumb, Helen Shannon and Edith Whitney.

—Franklin McMullen, 63 Ashland street, and Robert McConnell of 130 Salem street, spent an enjoyable week in Portland, Me.

Seeks Presidency

Remembered as the man who conceived the 1913 revolution against the usurper General Victoriano Huerta, Luis Cabrera, former Mexican Minister of Finance, has announced his candidacy for the Presidency of Mexico on an anti-revolution platform. Sunk!

-NOW is the time to REMODEL-REPAIR

Prices are down on all Building Construction. You'll have to go back at least fifteen years before you'll find figures so low.

Today the prices of materials have been radically reduced. Today the cost of labor is lower than it has been in the last decade.

EFFICIENT WORK

That's why we urge those of you who have building projects in view, or those of you who need repairing done or those of you who will remodel to have your work done at once. Efficiently and Economically.
